Including the Trollope Society in an existing Will

If you have already made a Will and need to make only a few changes, you can complete this Codicil form which allows you to make changes or amendments to your Will. If substantial changes are to be made we advise you to contact your solicitor who can redraft the Will into a new document, to avoid any errors.

We particularly recommend that you consult a solicitor if your Will already has a codicil(s). We also advise you to seek legal advice if you are making substantial changes to your Will, for example leaving a gift of residue (ie leaving what is left in your estate to someone after specific gifts have been given to beneficiaries).

This form should be signed by two witnesses, as with your Will.

Keep the Codicil with your current Will.

Send a copy of the Will and Codicil to either your solicitor, executor, or whoever looks after your Will.

Thank you for helping us continue to promote the works of Anthony Trollope. If you feel comfortable doing so, we would appreciate it if you could let us know of your intention to include us with a gift in your will, so that we can express our thanks.
