

The Trollope Society Membership form

Membership benefits

The Trollope Society exists, with a world-wide membership, to promote and publish the works of Anthony Trollope, to provide a forum for the exploration of all aspects of his life, and to encourage the reading and enjoyment of his fiction for future generations.

Membership runs for 12 months from the date of payment.
Membership benefits:

- The right to attend the Annual Lecture, and to apply for tickets to the Annual Dinner; and other occasional entertainments and events organised by the Society.
- Three issues of Trollopiana, the literary magazine of the Society.
- The right to order books from the Trollope Society Edition at a reduced price for members.

Data Protection Information

The Trollope Society will use the information supplied on this form for membership administration and sending mailings, including Trollopiana, information on the Society's events, products and activities.

On occasion the Society may pass your details to other organisations with similar aims and objectives. If you would prefer your details not to be shared with other organisations please tick here ☐

If you are a UK tax payer, Gift Aid allows the Society to reclaim basic rate tax from the Inland Revenue (currently at the rate of 25p for each £1 that you give).

☐ I am a UK tax payer and I would like the Trollope Society (a registered charity, number 803130) to treat my membership subscriptions, and any other donations I might make, as Gift Aid donations. (Please sign at bottom of next column).

Payment by Direct Debit will significantly reduce our costs. Furthermore, we would be grateful if you could consider adding an annual donation to help the Society achieve its aims.
